Hello Everyone,

As we move here in the U.S. into the summer months, we are just out of Zambia ‘winter’ and the weather is wonderful. We continue to make mud bricks for building the two homes on our land. We are nearly ready to begin construction on the community school as well. Our goal is to have the 3-room school and 2 homes up and under roof (metal sheets) before the rainy season which begins in mid-November.

How can we manage? Well, by faith and obedience. Ministries that stay alive are forever moving forward (albeit sometimes inch by inch) – walking along the ridge called ‘faith’ overlooking that chasm called ‘impossibility.’ No one ever said it would be easy, but (and I quote from Charles Swindoll). . . ‘Every achievement worth remembering is stained with the blood of diligence and scarred by the wounds of disappointment.’ We will not give up. The need is too great. Our God is too big.

We rejoice that Gedaliah had the opportunity to speak to pastors and their wives at a large Christian Conference last month, as well as in Kasongo. The hearts of the people are open and hungry. We don’t take these times of sharing lightly, but are so thankful that we are a part of what God is doing, and deems us worthy vessels He can use.

We appreciate so much those of you who continue to stand with us in prayer, and those who support us through your resources. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

God bless you abundantly,
Ruth for the entire Bridge Team
